RE: Infringement of Hazelden Foundation's Trademark and Service Mark Registrations for its Mark Hazelden

Dear Sirs:

We represent the Hazelden Foundation in its intellectual property law matters. Hazelden Foundation is the owner of the famous mark HAZELDEN. Copies of their twenty-five (25) U.S. and foreign service mark and trademark registrations for the mark HAZELDEN are enclosed herewith.

Also enclosed please find an LA Times blog concerning your band known as HAZELDEN-- featuring the derogatory drug-related, stage named singer, Mary Jane Snow.

We demand that you immediately cease and desist all use and reference to the registered mark HAZELDEN together with any other derivative names (i.e., Hazeldon, etc.) and acknowledge your willingness to do so within seven days of receipt of this letter.

Alternatively, should you not cease your infringement of Hazelden Foundation's mark and acknowledge your willingness to do so, we will bring Federal District Court action against you under the Federal Lanham Act for trademark and service mark infringement, dilution of Hazelden's famous mark, the creation of a false affiliation or sponsorship with Hazelden Foundation and disparagement.

This also means you must give up all websites wherein you use the registered mark HAZELDEN (or derivatives) such as your website www.hazeldenmusic.com and your www.myspace.com/hazelden.

We await seven days from receipt of this letter of your willingness to comply with this demand or otherwise your intentions.

Very truly yours,

Gerald E. Helget
