CASE NO.

COMPLAINT FOR:

- (1) VIOLATION OF SECTION 43(d) OF THE LANHAM ACT;
(2) VIOLATION OF SECTION 32 OF THE LANHAM ACT;
(3) VIOLATION OF SECTION 43(a) OF THE LANHAM ACT, WASHINGTON CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT, RCW §19.86.090, AND WASHINGTON COMMON LAW;
(4) VIOLATION OF SECTION 43(c) OF THE LANHAM ACT AND WASHINGTON STATUTE, RCW §19.77.160

21
22 Plaintiff, MasterCard International Incorporated ("Plaintiff" or "MasterCard"), for and as 23 its Complaint, alleges as follows:

24 PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

25
26 1. Plaintiff, MasterCard, is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of 27 Delaware, with a principal place of business at 2000 Purchase Street, Purchase, New York 28 10577.

1 2. Defendant, Montana Thomas ("Thomas"), upon information and belief, is an
2 individual residing at 550 15th Street, Suite 36B, San Francisco, California 94105.

3 3. Defendant, Credit.com, Inc. ("Credit.com"), is a California corporation with an 4 address at 201 Mission St., Suite 1550, San Francisco, California 94105.
5

6 4. Credit.com and Thomas (collectively "Defendants") are subject to the jurisdiction
7 of this Court. This Court's jurisdiction arises from the fact that: (i) this is an action brought 8 under the Trademark Laws of the United States, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051-1127, jurisdiction being 9 conferred by 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338; (ii) this is a civil action in 10 which Plaintiff and Defendants are citizens of different states and the value of the matter in 11 controversy exceeds seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) exclusive of interest and costs,
12 jurisdiction being conferred under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a); and (iii) certain claims are joined with 13 substantial and related claims under the Trademark Laws of the United States, 15 U.S.C.
14 §§ 1051-1127, jurisdiction being conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1338(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1367.
15

16 5. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that a substantial part
17 of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this District. Specifically,
18 Defendants registered the domain name <mastercard.cm> (the "Infringing Domain Name") in 19 this District through the registrar, eNom Inc ("eNom"). Defendants entered into a domain name
20 Registration Agreement with eNom that states, "for the adjudication of third party disputes (i.e., 21 disputes between you and another party, not us) concerning or arising from use of domain names
22 arising hereunder, you shall submit without objection . . . to the subject matter and personal 23 jurisdiction of the courts . . . where we are located, currently those State or federal courts whose 24 geographic districts include Bellevue, Washington." This dispute concerns and arises from the 25 Infringing Domain Name because Defendants, with the bad faith intent to profit, registered and 26
27
28

1 uses the Infringing Domain Name in this District and elsewhere to divert consumers to 2 Defendants' website and confuse consumers as to the source, sponsorship or affiliation with 3 MasterCard's name, trademarks and service marks.
4

5 FACTS

6 6. For many years, and long prior to the Defendants' acts complained of herein,
7 MasterCard, its licensees and its predecessors-in-interest have engaged in administering and
8 licensing its member financial institutions and merchants to participate in the MASTERCARD
9 payment program in commerce throughout the United States under the MASTERCARD and Red
10 and Yellow Interlocking Circles Device trademarks and service marks (the "MASTERCARD
11 Marks").
12

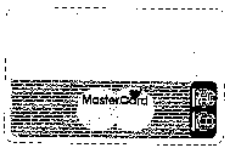

13 7. MasterCard owns numerous federal trademark registrations for its 14 MASTERCARD Marks, including the following:
15

16

Mark	Reg. No.	Reg. Date	Goods/Services
MASTERCARD	2,212,783	Dec. 22, 1998	Magnetic encoded cards; magnetic encoded card readers; telecommunications equipment, namely point of transaction terminals; and computer software for transmitting, displaying and storing transaction, identification and financial information for use in the financial services, banking and telecommunications industries.

MasterCard	1,186,117	Jan. 12, 1982	Financial services- namely, providing bank card services.

8. All of the above-referenced registrations are valid and subsisting, are incontestable in accordance with 15 U.S.C. §§ 1065 and 1115(b) and are "conclusive evidence" of MasterCard's "exclusive right" to use the MASTERCARD Marks in connection with the registered goods. 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b).

1 the registration information is attached at Exhibit A.

2 16. eNom's place of business is 15801 NE 24th St. Bellevue, Washington 98008.

3 17. According to the eNom Whois report for the Infringing Domain Name, the 4 administrative contact is Montana Thomas at 201 Mission Street, Suite 1550, San Francisco,
5 California. The administrative e-mail address is listed as <mthomas@credit.com>. See Exhibit
6
7 A.

8 18. The administrative address on the eNom Whois report is the same address as 9 Credit.com.

10 19. Defendant Credit.com owns and operates a website at <www.credit.com> that 11 offers credit-card related goods and services, including the goods and services of MasterCard and 12 its competitors. A print-out of the Credit.com home page is attached at Exhibit B.

13 20. The Infringing Domain Name resolves to a page on Defendants' website at 14 <www.credit.com>. A print-out of the web page that the Infringing Domain Name resolves to is 15 attached at Exhibit C.

16 21. On information and belief, Thomas, under the authorization, control and direction
17 of Credit.com, and with the knowledge, assistance and to the benefit of Credit.com, caused the 18 website at <mastercard.cm> to resolve to Credit.com's website at <www.credit.com>. In doing
19 so, Thomas was the agent of Credit.com and was acting within the course of business and the 20 scope of such agency.

21 22. On information and belief, Defendants registered the Infringing Domain Name
22 <mastercard.cm> because the ".cm" extension (which is the country code for Cameroon) is a
23 common "typo" for the widely used ".com" extension, and Defendants would therefore benefit
24 from typing mistakes by Internet users seeking MasterCard's <mastercard.com> website.

COUNT II
(TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT)

41. MasterCard re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 37, as if fully set forth herein.

42. Defendants' acts have caused or are likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception as to the source or origin, sponsorship or approval of Defendants' goods and services, in that purchasers and others in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States are likely to believe that Defendants are associated with or related to MasterCard or are authorized by MasterCard to offer financial services under the MASTERCARD Marks.

43. Defendants' acts injure MasterCard's image and reputation with consumers in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States by creating a likelihood of confusion about, and dissatisfaction with, MasterCard.

44. Defendants' deliberate use of the MASTERCARD Marks in the Infringing Domain Name constitutes trademark infringement of the MASTERCARD Marks in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

45. Defendants' acts greatly and irreparably damage MasterCard and will continue to so damage MasterCard unless restrained by this Court; wherefore, MasterCard is without an adequate remedy at law.

COUNT III (UNFAIR COMPETITION)

46. MasterCard re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 37, as if fully set forth herein.

47. Defendants acts constitute unfair competition with MasterCard in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW § 19.86.090, and the common law of various states, including the State of Washington.

1 19.77.160.

2 58. Defendants' acts greatly and irreparably damage MasterCard and will continue to 3 so damage MasterCard unless restrained by this Court; wherefore, MasterCard is without an 4 adequate remedy at law.
5

6 COUNT VI
7 (UNFAIR ACTS AND PRACTICES UNDER RCW § 19.86.020)

8 59. MasterCard re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 37, as if fully set forth herein.

9 60. Defendants' conduct constitutes unfair acts and practices under RCW 19.86.020.

10 61. MasterCard is entitled to injunctive and such further relief as allowed by RCW
11 19.86.090 including recovery of its costs and attorneys' fees.
12

13 PRAYER

14 WHEREFORE, MasterCard prays that:

15 1. Defendants, and all persons acting in concert or participating with Defendants, be 16 preliminarily and permanently enjoined from:
17

18 (a) registering or maintaining any registration of the Infringing Domain Name or any 19 other names, words, designations or symbols consisting of, incorporating in whole or 20 part, or otherwise confusingly similar to the MASTERCARD Marks or any other trade
21 names, trademarks or service marks of MasterCard;
22

23 (b) using the Infringing Domain Name or any other names, words, designations or 24 symbols consisting of, incorporating in whole or part, or otherwise confusingly similar to 25 the MASTERCARD Marks or any other trade names, trademarks or service marks of 26 MasterCard;
27
28

1 (c) using any names, words, designations or symbols consisting of, incorporating in
2 whole or part, or otherwise similar to the MASTERCARD Marks or any other
3 MasterCard trademark anywhere on any and all websites of Defendants;
4

5 (d) using any names, words, designations or symbols consisting of, incorporating in
6 whole or part, or otherwise similar to the MASTERCARD Marks or any other
7 MasterCard trademark in any buried code, metatags, search terms, keywords, key terms,
8 hits generating pages, or any other devices used, intended, or likely to cause any website
9 or websites of Defendants to be listed by any Internet search engines in response to any 10 searches that include any terms identical with or confusingly similar to the 11 MASTERCARD Marks or any other MasterCard trademarks;
12

14 (e) using any names, words, designations or symbols consisting of, incorporating in 15 whole or part, or otherwise similar to the MASTERCARD Marks or any other
16 MasterCard trademark, in any e-mail or other marketing solicitations sent to consumers;
17

18 (f) otherwise infringing MasterCard's trademarks;
19

20 (g) making any description or representation stating or implying that Defendants' goods
21 or services, domain names or websites are in any way affiliated, associated, authorized,
22 sponsored, endorsed or otherwise connected with MasterCard; and 23

24 (h) any other conduct that is likely to cause confusion or to cause mistake or to deceive as 25 to the source, affiliation, connection or association of Defendants' domain names,
26 websites, products or services with MasterCard.
27
28

1 2. Defendants be ordered to disclose to the Court and MasterCard all other domain
2 name registrations owned directly or indirectly by Defendants, or by entities in which 3 Defendants have a financial interest, to permit the Court and MasterCard to consider whether any 4 such other registrations should be subject to relief in this matter.
5

6 3. Defendants, and all persons acting in concert or participating with Defendants, be
7 ordered to transfer to MasterCard the Infringing Domain Name and any other infringing domain
8 names as may be determined by the Court as appropriate herein for relief. 15 U.S.C. §
9 1125(d)(1)(C).
10

11 4. Defendants be ordered to pay statutory damages in the amount of $100,000.00.
12 15 U.S.C. § 1117(d).
13

14 5. Defendants be ordered to pay MasterCard all profits realized by Defendants by 15 reason of Defendants' unlawful acts as set forth in this Complaint. 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).
16

17 6. Defendants be ordered to pay MasterCard all damages suffered by MasterCard by 18 reason of Defendants' trademark infringement as set forth in this Complaint. 15 U.S.C. §
19 1117(a); RCW § 19.86.090.
20

21 7. The Court award MasterCard three times the damages suffered by reason of the 22 intentional, unlawful acts of Defendants as set forth in this Complaint. 15 U.S.C. §§ 1117(a);
23 RCW § 19.86.090.
24

25 8. Defendants be required to file with this Court and serve on the undersigned
26 counsel for MasterCard, within thirty (30) days after the entry of judgment, a written report
27
28

1 under oath setting forth in detail the manner in which Defendants have complied with the
2 injunction ordered by this Court. 15 U.S.C. § 1116.

3
4 9. Defendants be ordered to pay to MasterCard the costs of this action and its
5 reasonable attorneys' fees. 15 U.S.C. §§ 1117(a); RCW § 19.86.090.

6
7 10. Defendants be ordered to pay punitive damages to MasterCard to deter
8 Defendants from committing such knowing and willful acts of infringement in the future.

9
10 11. MasterCard shall have such other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
