1 Plaintiff United States Olympic Committee (the "USOC"), by and for its
2 complaint against Defendant ASICS America Corporation, alleges as follows:

3
4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. The USOC files this action against Defendant for violation of the Ted
6 Stevens Olympic and Amateur Sports Act (the "Olympic and Amateur Sports Act"),
7 36 U.S.C. §§220501 et seq. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28
8 U.S.C. §1331.

9 2. The USOC is informed and believes that Defendant has its principal place
10 of business within this judicial district. This action arises out of wrongful acts 11 committed by Defendant in this judicial district, which subjects Defendant to the 12 personal jurisdiction of this Court. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28
13 U.S.C. §1391(b).

14
15 PARTIES

16 3. The USOC is a non-profit, federally chartered corporation with its principal 17 place of business at One Olympic Plaza, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80909-5760.

18 4. The USOC alleges upon information and belief that Defendant is a 19 California corporation with its principal place of business in Irvine, California.
20 Defendant is the North American subsidiary of sporting goods manufacturer ASICS
21 Corporation (Japan). Defendant sells athletic shoes, sports apparel and accessories.
22 Its shoe line includes footwear for running, racing, track and field, walking, training, 23 basketball, wrestling and volleyball.

24 5. The true names and capacities of the Defendants named herein as Does 1-25 10, inclusive, are unknown to the USOC, who therefore sues said Defendants by such 26 fictitious names. The USOC will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and 27 capacities when ascertained. The USOC is informed and believes and thereon alleges 28 that each of the Defendants is liable to the USOC for the events alleged herein.

1 THE USOC AND THE OLYMPIC MARKS

2 6. Since the first modern Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, in 1896, the 3 USOC has used certain unique symbols and terminology in connection with the 4 United States' participation in the Olympic Games. The words and terminology have 5 included the Five Interlocking Rings (the "OLYMPIC Symbol") and the words
6 OLYMPIC, OLYMPIAD, CITIUS, ALTIUS, FORTIUS and certain other words
7 (collectively the "OLYMPIC Marks"). The goodwill associated with these marks
8 arises from and is due in large part to the USOC's efforts. These marks are valuable 9 assets, and this value ensures the USOC's long-term ability to fund the U.S. Olympic 10 Team's participation in the Olympic Games and other activities.

11 7. Pursuant to the Olympic and Amateur Sports Act (and its predecessor 12 statute, the Amateur Sports Act of 1978, 36 U.S.C. §§371, et seq.), the USOC has 13 been granted, inter alia, the exclusive right to use the OLYMPIC Marks in the United 14 States. Unlike a plaintiff suing under the Lanham Act, the USOC need not 15 demonstrate that the public is likely to be confused by a particular unauthorized use of 16 OLYMPIC or any of the other OLYMPIC Marks. In the Olympic and Amateur 17 Sports Act, Congress authorized the USOC to bring a civil action against any person 18 who uses any of the OLYMPIC Marks "without the consent of the [USOC] . . . for the 19 purpose of trade, to induce the sale of any goods or services, or to promote any . . .
20 athletic performance . . ." 36 U.S.C. §220506(c).

21 8. Since 1950, the USOC has been entrusted under federal law with 22 responsibility for coordinating and developing amateur athletic activity in the United 23 States directly related to international amateur athletic competition and has been 24 granted exclusive jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to participation of the United 25 States in the Olympic Games. To fulfill these responsibilities, the USOC obtains 26 most of its funding through sponsorship fees, suppliership agreements and fees
27 obtained through licensing of media properties and merchandise. For example, Nike, 28 Inc., a leading designer, marketer and distributor of athletic footwear, apparel and

HOWARD

1 accessories, is one of the USOC's leading sponsors, devoting substantial resources to 2 the USOC for the right to use the OLYMPIC Marks and thereby associate itself with 3 the U.S. Olympic Team and the Olympic Games. In the most recent Olympic 4 quadrennium, 2005 to 2008, the value of Nike's sponsorship of the USOC and the 5 U.S. Olympic Team has been over $20 million.

6 9. The fees that the USOC generates through the licensing of its intellectual 7 property, including the OLYMPIC Marks, are used to house, feed, train and otherwise
8 support U.S. Olympic athletes and to finance the United States' participation in the 9 Olympic Games. For example, during the past four years, these fees were used to 10 assist the USOC in:

11 (a) hosting approximately 25,000 athletes, coaches, officials and program
12 staff per year for the National Governing Bodies ("NGBs") for the individual 13 Olympic sports at its three Olympic training centers (located in Chula Vista, 14 California, Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Lake Placid, New York) and at its U.S.
15 Olympic Education Center in Marquette, Michigan;

16 (b) working with local communities and assisting in funding at least 17 twenty-seven Olympic and Paralympic sports in partnership with NGBs on behalf of 18 the Community Olympic Development Programs in Atlanta, Minneapolis, San 19 Antonio, Springfield, Missouri, Flagstaff, Arizona, Lake County, Indiana, and 20 Moorestown, New Jersey;

21 (c) directing over $10 million per year in grants to more than one
22 thousand individual athletes;

23 (d) directing over $9 million per year to support athletes, coaches and 24 NGBs in the areas of sports medicine, sports science, coaching, and training;

25 (e) awarding over $150 million in grants to its member organizations,
26 including NGBs, for individual Olympic and Paralympic sports;

27 (f) providing millions of dollars in support to U.S. athletes and teams in 28 national and international competitions including over $30 million this year to send

1 the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic teams to Beijing; and 2 (g) funding the USOC's many other statutory functions.

3 10. Unlike almost every other National Olympic Committee around the world,
4 the USOC does not rely on the government for a substantial portion of its funding.
5 Therefore, its exclusive rights under the Olympic and Amateur Sports Act to the use
6 of, inter alia, the word OLYMPIC, are critical to the USOC's continued ability to 7 fulfill its federally chartered mission.

11. In late April 2008, Defendant began to display an advertisement on the home page of its website, www.asicsamerica.com, that makes frequent and prominent use of the word OLYMPIC and promotes Defendant's products (the "Website Advertisement"). The Website Advertisement features two photographs of marathon runner Deena Kastor. In large banner text, the Website Advertisement states, "KASTOR HEADS TO THIRD OLYMPICS." Below this text, the advertisement states, "Deena Kastor secured her spot on the US Olympic Team by winning the Women's Marathon Olympic Trials." Below the photographs of Kastor is an advertisement for Defendant's GT-2130 running shoe. Above the photographs is a link labeled "FIND A RETAILER," by which users may locate retailers of Defendant's products. To the left of the photographs are links to Defendant's product lines, by which users may learn about Defendant's products, including suggested retail prices. The Website Advertisement itself contains a link to a statement that promotes, inter alia, the fact that Defendant sponsors Kastor, and describes the specific shoes and accessories made by Defendant that Kastor wore during the race. The USOC is informed and believes that Defendant provides paid sponsorship to Kastor in exchange for her endorsing, using and promoting Defendant's products, and that Defendant publishes advertisements about its sponsored athletes, including

& RAEBKIN

1 Kastor, because of the economic benefits it receives as a result of such advertising. A
2 true and correct copy of the Website Advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3 12. Defendant has neither sought nor received authorization from the USOC to 4 use the word OLYMPIC in the Website Advertisement, or in any manner whatsoever.
5 To the contrary, based on Defendant's prior advertising and the USOC's responses
6 thereto, Defendant is running this advertisement with full knowledge—and 7 disregard—of the USOC's federally protected rights in the word OLYMPIC.

8 13. After the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Defendant ran a full-page
9 advertisement in the September 3, 2004, edition of USA TODAY that depicted a 10 stylized ASICS letter "A" draped in a laurel wreath similar to those awarded to the 11 medal winners in Athens (the "Athens Advertisement"). The Athens Advertisement
12 read, "YOU WEAR THE MEDALS. WE WEAR THE PRIDE." Pictures of three 13 Olympic athletes appeared below, with their names, events and medals won noted 14 next to the photographs. At the bottom, the Athens Advertisement stated, 15 "Congratulations to all of the Olympic athletes from your friends at ASICS," followed 16 by Defendant's website address (www.asicsamerica.com). As described above,
17 Defendant's website contains product advertisements and information about retailers 18 of Defendant's products. The USOC is informed and believes that, at the time the 19 Athens Advertisement ran, Defendant provided paid sponsorship to the athletes 20 pictured in the Athens Advertisement in exchange for their endorsing, using and 21 promoting Defendant's products, and that Defendant publishes advertisements about 22 its sponsored athletes, including the athletes pictured in the Athens Advertisement,
23 because of the economic benefits it receives as a result of such advertising. A true
24 and correct copy of the Athens Advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

25 14. After the Athens Advertisement appeared, the USOC objected in writing to 26 Defendant's unauthorized use of the word OLYMPIC and its attempt to associate 27 itself with the Olympic Games, but Defendant refused to cease its unauthorized use of 28 the OLYMPIC Marks.

1 15. In November 2007, Defendant again published an advertisement in USA
2 TODAY that made frequent use of the word OLYMPIC. The almost full-page
3 advertisement (the "Ryan Hall Advertisement") featured a photograph of marathon
4 runner Ryan Hall and included the text, "Congratulations to Ryan Hall on his record-
5 breaking win at the US Olympic Marathon Team Trials. Good luck in the 2008
6 Summer Olympic Games." A large ASICS logo appeared below this text. The 7 USOC is informed and believes that Defendant provides paid sponsorship to Ryan 8 Hall in exchange for his endorsing, using and promoting Defendant's products, and 9 that Defendant publishes advertisements about its sponsored athletes, including Hall,
10 because of the economic benefits it receives as a result of such advertising. A true
11 and correct copy of the Ryan Hall Advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

12 16. After the Ryan Hall Advertisement appeared, the USOC again objected to 13 Defendant's unauthorized use of the word OLYMPIC and its attempt to associate
14 itself with the Olympic Games. Once again, Defendant rejected the USOC's demand
15 that it conform its conduct to the requirements of the Olympic and Amateur Sports
16 Act.

18 CLAIM FOR RELIEF

19 (Violation Of The Olympic And Amateur Sports Act)

20 (36 U.S.C. §220506(c))

21 17. The allegations of paragraphs 1 through 16 are incorporated herein by 22 reference.

23 18. Defendant has used the word OLYMPIC in the Website Advertisement, the 24 Athens Advertisement and the Ryan Hall Advertisement for the purpose of trade, to 25 induce the sale of Defendant's goods or services, and to promote the athletic 26 performance of its sponsored athletes.

27 19. The USOC has not consented to Defendant's use of the word OLYMPIC in 28 this manner.

CANADY
BALK

1 20. Unless Defendant is enjoined, it will continue to promote the athletes it
2 sponsors and the sale of its goods and services by unlawfully using the word
3 OLYMPIC in the United States and in this jurisdiction.

4 21. Defendant's unauthorized use has caused and will continue to cause the 5 USOC to suffer immediate and irreparable injury, loss and damage because, among 6 other things, (a) the USOC's exclusive, federally protected rights to use the word
7 OLYMPIC have been and will continue to be violated, and (b) the USOC's ability to 8 obtain fees from sponsorships, supplierships and licensing of goods, services and 9 merchandise will be diminished or undermined by Defendant's unauthorized use of 10 the word OLYMPIC and its attempt to associate itself in its advertising with the 11 Olympic Games. Accordingly, the USOC is entitled to preliminary and permanent 12 injunctive relief barring Defendant from engaging in violations of the Olympic and 13 Amateur Sports Act.

14 22. Defendant's actions to circumvent the consent requirements of the Olympic 15 and Amateur Sports Act have been willful.

16 23. This is an "exceptional case" pursuant to 36 U.S.C. §220506(c) and 15
17 U.S.C. §1117(a) and, as such, the USOC is also entitled to recover its attorneys' fees
18 from Defendant.

19 WHEREFORE, the USOC prays for relief as follows:

20 1. That Defendant be adjudged to have used the word OLYMPIC for the 21 purposes of trade without the authorization of the USOC, in violation of federal law;

22 2. That Defendant be adjudged to have used the word OLYMPIC to induce 23 the sale of goods or services without the authorization of the USOC, in violation of 24 federal law;

25 3. That Defendant be adjudged to have used the word OLYMPIC to promote 26 an athletic performance without the authorization of the USOC, in violation of federal 27 law;

28 4. For an order requiring that Defendant permanently cease use of the Website

1 Advertisement, the Athens Advertisement and the Ryan Hall Advertisement or any 2 similar or comparable advertisements;

3 5. That Defendant and its parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors, 4 employees, agents, successors and assigns, and all those persons in active concert or 5 participation with them, be preliminarily and permanently enjoined and restrained
6 from using any OLYMPIC Mark, including without limitation the word OLYMPIC,
7 as well as any other trademark, service mark, trade name, designation, symbol,
8 emblem or insignia of the USOC, or any combination or simulation thereof, for 9 purpose of trade, to induce the sale of any goods or services, or to promote any 10 theatrical exhibition, athletic performance, or competition, without the express written 11 consent of the USOC;

12 6. That Defendant be directed to file with this Court, and to serve upon the 13 USOC within thirty days after service upon Defendant of this Court's injunction 14 issued in this action, a written report sworn to and signed under oath setting forth in 15 detail the manner in which it has complied with such injunction;

16 7. For an award of all profits heretofore realized by Defendant as a result of its 17 violations of the Olympic and Amateur Sports Act pursuant to 36 U.S.C. §220506 and 18 15 U.S.C. §1117 and, if the Court finds that that amount is inadequate, for an amount 19 that the Court determines to be just;

20 8. For an award of the USOC's reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 36
21 U.S.C. §220506 and 15 U.S.C. §1117(b);
